

A group of men, including religious leaders and officials, are seated on a patterned rug in a room with religious posters, engaged in a discussion. The room has a yellow wall with various posters, including one of a religious figure and another with Arabic text. A large banner with a religious figure is also visible. The men are dressed in a mix of traditional Islamic attire (thobes, ghutras) and Western suits. A camera is visible in the foreground, suggesting the event is being recorded. The watermark 'ammaralhakeem.com' is present in the bottom right corner.
