

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the Prime Minister, Mr. Adil Abdul-Mahdi to discuss latest developments in the political situation and completing government cabinet

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad, received the Prime Minister, Mr. Adil Abdul-Mahdi Monday 17/12/2018

His eminence with Abdul-Mahdi discussed latest developments in the political situation and completing government cabinet, stressed the need to conclude the remaining of the government cabinet and select competent and honest personages capable of achieving the aspirations of the people, calling on the political powers to assume their national responsibilities and waiver for the interest of Iraq in order to promote service and development situations.

His eminence emphasized on services, job opportunities and elimination of corruption as important priorities, called to adopt a policy of openness to the Arab and regional environment, and building balanced relations based on common interests.