Sayyid Al-Hakeem from Baghdad Stresses Preserving Diyala's Diversity, Stability

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met in his Baghdad office with a group of sheiks and dignitaries from Al-Sumaida'i clan of Diyala province. After listening to their remarks, His Eminence highlighted the long-standing ties with the people of Diyala, particularly with this respected clan, affirming the depth of Iraq's social bonds and the need to sustain them.

- H.E. reiterated the importance of safeguarding the political, social, and security stability achieved through the sacrifices of Iraqis from all components, stressing that maintaining and strengthening this stability is a shared responsibility.
- H.E. further noted that Diyala represents a miniature Iraq due to the diversity of its communities, underscoring the need for continued efforts to protect this diversity and manage it correctly.
