Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Completing Government Requires Consensus Ministers Possessing Competence, Integrity

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received at his office this morning the Head of the Sumerians Movement, Mr. Ahmed Al-Asadi, where the latest developments in Iraq's political landscape were discussed – foremost among them the file of completing the government formation.

Both sides stressed the necessity of sustaining political dialogues among all parties to appoint competent ministers of integrity and competence to fill the remaining ministerial portfolios.

H.E. also renewed his support for the government's steps in combating corruption, affirming the importance of targeting the major files in this domain.
