

Sayyid Al-Hakeem Calls to Leverage This Stage to Diversify Economy, Activate Productive Sectors

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance and Leader of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a gathering of organizational leaderships of Al-Hikma National Movement in Maysan Governorate, expressing his condolences on the anniversary of the martyrdom of Imam Al-Askari (PBUH), pointing to the challenges Imam Al-Askari faced during his period leading the Imamate, including intellectual challenges, and the challenge of safeguarding Imam Sahib Al-Asr wal-Zaman (may Allah hasten his noble reappearance), and preparing the followers of Ahl Al-Bayt (PBUT) for his blessed occultation.

H.E. explained that Al-Hikma National Movement's project is subjected to targeting unlike any other, which is evidence of this project's influence, calling on Al-Hikma's members to adopt an approach of clarification in explaining the nature of the project and dismantling the doubts the movement faces, and stressing the importance of moving from the stage of outreach to the stage of influence.

H.E. called for learning about the project and the biography of its symbols and prominent martyrs, stressing the necessity of identifying the competent and empowering them, along with the importance of placing the right person in the right place, affirming the importance of fieldwork and providing service to the people of Maysan.

H.E. stressed leveraging this stage to diversify the economy and activate the productive sectors such as agriculture, industry, tourism, investment, and modern technology, along with the importance of diversifying crude oil export outlets, stressing the fight against corruption and the continuation of this campaign, and expressing his optimism about the possibility of confining weapons to the hands of the state through dialogue and understanding.
