Sayyid Al-Hakeem Affirms National Unity, Nurturing Youth Talents

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received Mr. Yassir Al-Maliki, Head of the State of Law Parliamentary Bloc, and discussed with him developments in the political scene in Iraq and the region, where H.E. stressed the necessity of upholding national unity and strengthening national cohesion to confront challenges.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem called for reading the current nature of society, in light of reports indicating that Iraqi society is a young society, stressing the necessity of nurturing and empowering youth and providing them with job opportunities, and affirming the importance of activating the private sector to absorb youth talents.

H.E. also renewed his support for the government of Prime Minister Ali Al-Zaidi in its developmental and reform path, particularly in the field of anti-corruption, and the project of consolidating weapons under state authority, through dialogue and understanding.
