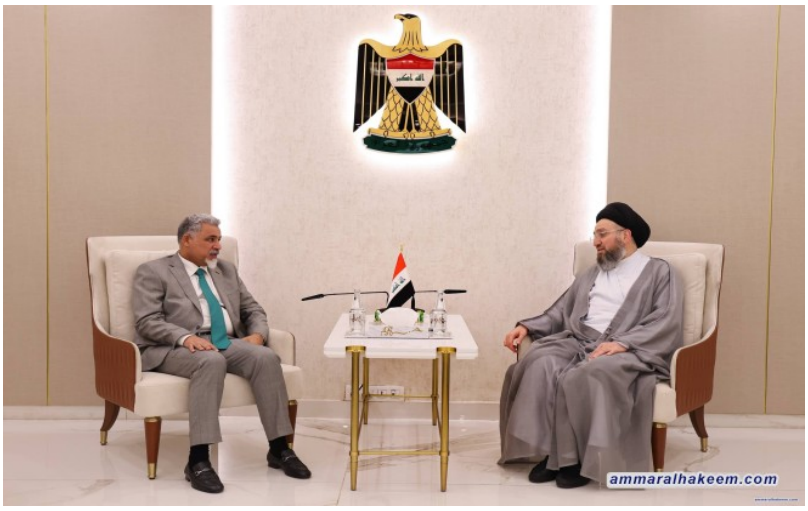
Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Ranks Unity, Institutionalizing Coordination Framework, Preserving Iraq's Stability



His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received a delegation from the Sumerions parliamentary bloc at his office in Baghdad, and discussed with them developments in the political scene, upcoming entitlements, and how to confront the challenges surrounding Iraq.

H.E. stressed unity and cohesion in confronting challenges, noting the importance of upholding the Coordination Framework and institutionalizing it, and calling for the legislation of laws with direct bearing on citizens, through which the structure of the Iraqi state and its constitutional institutions is completed.

H.E. also renewed his support for the anti-corruption campaign, stressing the importance of targeting major files, and pointing to the importance of completing the project of consolidating weapons under state authority through dialogue and understanding, in accordance with Iraqi timelines and priorities.
