

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim offer condolences for the death of Judge Ezzat Tawfiq, head of the Commission of Integrity

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, expressed his deep sorrow and condolences for the departure of the head of Commission Integrity, Judge Ezzat Tawfiq, who passed away after a regrettable incident in Dohuk province, and passed his deep condolences to his family and relatives.

His eminence urged the institutions of integrity to continue the journey of the deceased with a patriotic spirit characterized by professional honor to eliminate the scourge of financial and administrative corruption rampant in the body of ministries and institutions, "which we consider to be another form of terrorism", and indicated that combating corruption is one of the top priorities of the current phase.