His eminence discussed with the president the political developments and the outcomes of the visits he is paying to officials including his Excellency's visit to Turkey. Sayyid Al Hakim highlighted the importance of accompanying the security victory with a political project that is reassuring to everyone. He also insisted that the national reconciliation projects must answer the four questions: with who? for what? under what ceiling? and what are the guarantees?, explaining that any project that does not answer these questions will be nothing more than a motto.
