

While Receiving the Head of Shiite Endowment, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Highlights Popular Crowd's Support and Displaced Care

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, stressed the importance of supporting the heroes of popular crowd and providing the required supplies to maintain the victories they achieve with the rest of our security forces over the criminal ISIS gangs, reiterating the need to take care of the displaced and provide adequate housing for them until passing through the current crisis and liberate the usurped land, declaring the importance of achieving national reconciliation on the condition to reply to the four questions: with whom, how and under what limits these projects are led, and what are the guarantees?

This came in a meeting between Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim and the head of Shiite Endowment, Sayyid Ala'a al-Moussawi, in His Eminence's office in Baghdad, on Thursday, April 30, 2015.

For his part, Sayyid al-Moussawi said the Shiite Endowment has opened the doors of all religious, cultural and service institutions to accommodate displaced people of Anbar, overcome their problems and provide their own needs.
