

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Clearing the Iraqi Land and Setting Up a Political Project Will Help Promote National Unity and Create the Right Environment for Stability in the Country

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, maintained that clearing the Iraqi land violated by the terrorist ISIS group and tracking the dormant cells as well as setting up a political project that reassure all Iraqis and guarantee their rights, while promoting the national unity, all this creates the right environment to put an end to the attacks and criminal activities conducted against the Iraqi people, calling on the security apparatuses to reconsider and update their plans and to use unconventional methods to protect the cities and the citizens' lives.

This came during a mourning gathering attended by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim and held on Tuesday, May 5, 2015 on the martyrdom of Ahmad, son of the Al Muwattin bloc MP, Faleh Assari in Al Muthanna province.

His Eminence also stated that the targeting of the citizens in the streets, alleys and public places reflect the terrorists' weakness, not strength, stressing the need to take procedures that help prevent such terrorist attacks.
