

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Discusses Regional Security Developments and War Against ISIS with German Ambassador

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, discussed with the ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany Mr. Eghard Boroza the security developments in the region and the war against ISIS, during a meeting held at his eminence's office in Baghdad on 7/5/2015.

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim called everyone to join efforts in order to extract the cancerous tumor that ISIS represents, explaining that Iraq is fighting a war against ISIS on behalf of the world and that ISIS will not only threaten Iraq but will be threatening the entire world.

His eminence highlighted the importance of security coordination and exchange of information that could limit the movement of terrorist groups and stop the flux of terrorists to Iraq. He stated that countries all over the world should assume their responsibility of eliminating this danger that is threatening everyone, affirming the importance of cooperation in the cultural field between Iraq and Germany and of benefitting from the German experience.