

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Participates with the Believers in their Procession Towards the Shrine of Imam Al Kadhim (AS) on His Martyrdom Anniversary

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, participated with the believers in their procession towards the shrine of Imam Al Kadhim (AS) on his martyrdom anniversary, as he walked beside the visitors along several roads in Baghdad throughout all the days of the visit and he checked on the Hussaini envoys and services provided to the visitors. His eminence affirmed that the visit is another proof of the Iraqis' attachment to the path of Ahl Al Bayt (AS). He explained that the bombings won't force the Iraqis into submission, and gave as an example the continuous procession of visitors despite the bombings, praising the participation of followers of other sects and religions in the visit and in serving the visitors.
