

The Head of the Parliament Endowments Committee Shares with Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim the Social Peace Document Prepared by the Committee

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received at his office in Baghdad on Sunday, 24/5/2015, the head of the parliament Endowments and Religious Affairs Committee Abdel Karim Aajman and the accompanying delegation of sheikhs and religious scholars.

His eminence highlighted the importance of social peace, and added that the problem of ISIS should not just be addressed at the security level but needs political and social solutions and the establishment of state institutions on sound bases.

For his part, Mr. Al Ajman stated that he shared with his eminence the social peace document prepared by parliament endowments committee. He insisted on the inviolability of the Iraqi blood and of the money of Iraqi people and explained that this document is different from its precedents.