

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Participates in the Funeral of the Martyrs of the Terrorist Bombing in Samarra

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, participated in the funeral of the martyrs of the terrorist bombing in Samarra, on Monday, 1/6/2015.

His eminence affirmed that the journey of martyrs will not stop until all Iraqi lands are freed from the filthiness of the terrorist ISIS gangs, indicating that the terrorist group is targeting everyone, which means that we should unite to confront it. He finally prayed to The Almighty to give patience to the parents of the martyrs.

It should be mentioned that the bombing targeted a number of fighters the majority of which were from the Turkmen followers of Ahl Al Bayt (AS).
