

In His Meeting with Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, the Head of the Implementation and Follow-Up Committee for National Reconciliation: The Civil Peace Initiative is Realistic and Logical and Does Justice to All Iraqi Parties and Components

The head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, affirmed that the civil peace and state building initiative is a document that seeks to meet the demands of all Iraqi components and is the cornerstone for building a united and stable Iraq. He insisted that it is a national Iraqi initiative representing the the efforts of all the loyal national forces within the constitution and applicable laws of the country.

This came when his eminence received Mr. Muhammad Salman al-Saadi, the head of the Implementation and Follow-Up Committee for National Reconciliation (IFCNR) at his office in Baghdad on Thursday, 4/6/2015.

For his part, Mr. Al Saadi assured that the clauses of the initiative are realistic and logical and do justice to all the Iraqi parties and components, in terms of rights and obligations, towards achieving a real national reconciliation among the Iraqis.
