

During His Visit to the Family of Martyr Mustafa Al Azari, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim: Mustafa is a Symbol of Martyrdom in Iraq

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, affirmed that the martyr Mustafa Al Azari is a symbol of martyrdom as he made proud his parents, his tribes and all the members of the army, security forces, and the popular crowd who answered the religious authority's call.

This came during his eminence's visit to the family of martyr Mustafa Al Azari in Sadr city on Thursday, 4/6/2015.

His eminence stated that Al Azri is a haughty personality that rose above its killers, adding that his body language was clear and full of haughtiness, and thus showed that he was the one who sought martyrdom despite his wound; his looks reflected his belittlement of the hanger rope and his pride for becoming a martyr who died defending his country and sanctities.
