

Sayyid Ammar Meets Former Kuwaiti Prime Minister Sheikh Nasser Al Sabah and Discusses with Him Investment Opportunities in Iraq

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, met on Tuesday, June 23, 2015, Former Kuwaiti Prime Minister Sheikh Nasser Al Sabah.

His eminence discussed with Sheikh Nasser Al Sabah the situation in the region and the bilateral relations between Iraq and Kuwait, highlighting that Iraq is a promising market for investment and it is working on eliminating all the obstacles facing investors, that in addition to the fact that most Iraqi cities have a high level of security and safety.