

During His Meeting with Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, the Sabaeen Mandeian Leader Describes the Civil Peace Initiative as the Life Boat for the Iraqi People with All its Components

The Sabaeen Mandeian Leader in Iraq and the world expressed his support of the civil peace and state building initiative and described it as the life boat for the Iraqi people with all its components and a key to all the problems and challenges facing Iraq. He also strongly condemned the criminal incident at Khan Bani Saad and expressed his solidarity with the parents of the martyrs and injured. Moreover, he extended his sincere wishes to Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim and to Muslims in Iraq and the world on the occasion of Eid Al Fitr.

This came when Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received at his office in Baghdad, the Sabaeen Mandeian leader in Iraq and the world Sattar Jabbar Al Helo and a number of religious figures on Tuesday, 21/7/2105.

The attendees discussed during the meeting the situation in the country and the national forces' efforts to face the challenges and achieve victories in different fields especially in the elimination of the terrorist ISIS gangs through the military operations.
