

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls for security and service readiness for Muharram

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, president of Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, has called for security and service readiness for Muharram, urging Huseini pulpit orators to invest Husseini occasions in confronting corruption, and to make counter-terrorism a top priority. His Eminence during his meeting with the governor of Najaf Luay al-Yasiri in his office in Baghdad on Saturday October 10, 2015, stressed on the care of the popular crowd's families and upgrading the level of service to the holy city of Najaf as it bears a great burden which doubles the responsibility.