

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Discusses with al-Abadi the Achieved Victories and Providing Support to Popular Crowd and Displaced Families

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, discussed with the Prime Minister, Dr. Haider al-Abadi the victories achieved in Baiji, Anbar and Saladin provinces, praising the unite among all armed forces that was the direct cause of victory, calling to support the fighters and to make it a top priority.

\r\n

His Eminence received al-Abadi in his office on Friday October 30th, 2015. He discussed with him the political, economic, and social situation in Iraq, reiterating his call for the adoption of the non-oil sources of income to overcome the financial crisis, stressing that the reforms require the availability of basic conditions such as seriousness, radicalism, inclusiveness and their compatibility with the law and the Constitution.

\r\n

His Eminence called to find a solution to the problem of displaced families and their complexes, and to alleviate their sufferings resulting from the bad weather conditions.