

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Threatens Putin, Condoling him for Russian Aircraft Accident in Sinai

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, sent a telegram of condolences to Russian President Vladimir Putin for the incident of Russian civilian aircraft crash in Sinai on Sunday October 1st,2015.

\r\n

His Eminence offered his deepest condolences to the Russian people and the families of the victims, expressing his confidence in the ability of Russian leadership to bypass the crisis.

\r\n

The Russian civilian aircraft had crashed in the Egyptian Sinai as a result of downing. A militant group affiliated to the terrorist organization ISIS in Egypt claimed responsibility for this incident.