

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Congratulates Turkish Presidents Erdoğan and Davutoğlu for the Success of Turkish Elections

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, congratulates Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan and Prime Minister Ahmet Davutoğlu for the success of early elections.

\r\n

This came in the telegrams he sent to both of them today, Monday, November 2nd, 2015.

\r\n

His Eminence mentioned the success of Turkish elections and the rush of Turkish people on them, congratulating AKP party for winning the recent elections. He also expressed his confidence that Turkey will contribute in sustaining the development and in resolving the region's problems, noting that Iraq and Turkey have significant opportunities in the development of joint action and common interests.