

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Discusses with Barzani Iraqi Situations and Kurdistan Region's Political Crisis

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, discussed with Kurdistan Democratic Party (KDP) leader, Massoud Barzani, the political situations in Iraq and the region and the political crisis in Kurdistan Region.

\r\n

This came during his eminence meeting with Massoud Barzani in his office in Erbil on Tuesday November 3rd, 2015.

\r\n

His Eminence called upon political forces to overcome the political crisis through dialogue, to develop a common vision for all crises, and to discuss the outstanding issues between the federal government and the provincial government, pointing out that ISIS represents a threat to all and must be confronted with more national cohesion.