

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Sends Cable of Condolences to French President Francois Hollande

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim expressed his solidarity and his deep condolences and sympathy to French government and people, and the families of the victims who were killed in the terrorist bombings of the French capital Paris, declaring his confidence in the ability of French government and people to overcome this crisis.

\r\n

This came in a cable of condolences sent by His Eminence to the French President Francois Hollande on Saturday November 14th, 2015. The French capital Paris witnessed yesterday several terrorist attacks that left dozens of victims.