

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Discusses with the Delegation of the Independent Bloc, Headed by al-Shahristani, the Developments in Security and Political Situations

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received in his office in Baghdad on Sunday November 22nd, 2015, the delegation of the independent bloc headed by the Minister of Higher Education Dr. Hussein al-Shahristani.

\r\n

His Eminence discussed with the Independent Bloc the developments in security and political situations and the victories achieved by the security forces and Popular Mobilization Units, stressing on the concerted efforts to proceed with the reforms characterized by seriousness, radicalism, inclusiveness, and law and Constitution.

\r\n

Concerning the National Alliance file, His Eminence underlined the importance of converging views to pass important laws such as the Budget Law and the rest of laws that serve the interest of the citizen.