

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Participates in the March of Al-Diwaniyah People towards Karbala

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, president of Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, participated in the march of Al-Diwaniyah people towards karbala to commemorate the forty-visit on Tuesday November 24th, 2015.

\r\n

His Eminence stressed that Al-Diwaniyah people have long been the precursors in serving the doctrine of Ahl al-Bayt (AS) and the visitors of Imam Hussein, noting that the adherence to Hussein project is an adherence to divine project. He also praised the service of Hussein processions and Al-Diwaniyah people's creation of new methods of service despite the financial hardship faced by the country and society, adding that the service is increasing and the generosity is illimitable.