

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Al-Arbaeen March Expresses Adherence to Hussein Project

\r\n

- Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, stressed that Al Arbaeen march is an expression of adherence to Hussein project and a renewal of pledge of allegiance to the master of martyrs, his objectives, values, and principles for which he sacrificed.

\r\n

This came during His Eminence participation in the march of the visitors of Wasit Governorate towards sublime Karbala to commemorate the forty-visit (Ziyarat al-Arbaeen) on Wednesday November 26th, 2015.

\r\n

His Eminence considered the adherence of Iraqi people to their religious authority and the fulfillment of its appeal for sacred defence a prolongation of the adherence to Hussein project, praising the high spirit shown by the visitors and the servants of Hussein processions and their dedication in providing service and illimitable and indescribable generosity.