

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim Visits The Christian Families Displaced From Mosul To Zayouna District In Baghdad

\r\n

On the occasion of Christmas and New Year's Day, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, visited, on Friday 1/1/2016, the Christian families displaced from Mosul and other areas to Baghdad, and he reassured the displaced saying that the elimination of Daesh is only a matter of time and they will soon be defeated, just as happened in Ramadi.

\r\n

His Eminence reiterated that the Christian component shall not be measured by number and they are not a minority, but an essential addition to the Iraqi society which is proud and revive with its diversity.