

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Discusses with al-Jabouri the Victories against ISIS and the Conditions of Displaced People

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received at his office in Baghdad on Monday 04/01/2016, the Speaker of the Iraqi Parliament Dr. Salim al-Jabouri.

\r\n

His Eminence discussed with al-Jabouri the victories achieved by the security forces in their war against the terrorist ISIS, reiterating his call for the importance of accompanying security progress with political progress through a project that brings all together.

\r\n

Regarding the file of displaced people, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim indicated that the best solution for displaced people is to liberate their cities and to return them to their homelands. He also called for taking care of them and securing their needs.

\r\n

At the legislative level, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim called upon Iraqi parliament to unify the visions in order to adopt the important laws including the Federal Court Act as it has a role in the reform process, as well as other important laws that would end the case of overlapping applicable laws that produced a clear administrative confusion.