

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim condemns the terrorist attacks in Indonesia and calls for a stand to eradicate the terrorists' methodology of bloodshed

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim expressed his condemnation towards the felonious bombings in Jakarta, Indonesia. Sayyid Ammar demanded the civilized community to stand to eradicate the terrorists' methodology of bloodshed.

\r\n

Chairman Islamic Supreme Council indicated in his personal Facebook page on January 15, 2016, Friday;

\r\n

we ruefully followed news of terrorist attacks in Jakarta city, capital of Indonesia. As we condemn the perpetrators, we have no doubts that they are associated to the same terrorist faction that and on daily basis commits crimes against our Iraqi people and the remaining nations in the region afflicted by this outrageous plague. We call the civilized world to unite as one opposing this methodology of bloodshed and eradicate it by its origins, so that mankind can restore security and peace.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar also indicated that; these terrorist actions targeting security, stability and peace all around the world and without exceptions to any civilian, are the opposite of the Islamic principles, all humanitarian values and against international laws. Sayyid Ammar concluded his speech by expressing his condolence to the victims' families and the government of Indonesia and wishing a fast recovery for the injured people.