

Sayyid Ammar al Hakim Discusses with the Commander of al Mountathar Brigade the Victories Achieved against ISIS

Sayyid Ammar al Hakim, Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, visited the headquarter of al Mountathar Brigade, one of the Martyr of the Niche Movement formations related to the Popular Mobilization Forces and met Sayyid Dagher al Moussawi, the Commander of the Brigade on Subday 17/01/2016.

His Eminence discussed with al Moussawi the victories achieved against ISIS in the areas of al Anbar and Salahuddin. He also praised the jihadist role played by the Iraqi leaders of jihadist history in mobilizing, training, and leading those who answered the call of the religious authority.

Sayyid al Hakim emphasized on pursuing higher commitment with the guidance of religious authority to the fighters. In addition to the high coordination with the other factions and armed forces.