Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim discusses service and security status with Governor and Chairman Basra provincial council Sunday, January 17, 2016. At his eminence's office, Baghdad.

Chairman Supreme Islamic Council of Iraq Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim with Basra Governor Mr. Majid Al-Nasrawi and Chairman Basra Provincial Council Mr. Sabah Al-Bazuni, discussed issues related to service, financial funds and security status of Basra province.

His Eminence emphasized during his meeting with Nasrawi and Bazuni on the importance of serving the province per current available potentials, explaining that planning for a federal government meeting is an important step, yet not adequate. This will oblige Basra officials to follow up on the steps regarding the embankment and the water desalination projects, emphasizing on the importance of roles\ integration between the governor and chairman provincial council in order to promote the province development plans. Nasrawi and Bazuni responded that their visit to Baghdad is to conduct meetings with leaders in Baghdad and to follow up decisions of the official governmental session with ministers.
