

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim emphasis strengthening relations between Iraq and follow Arab countries

Chairman Supreme Islamic Council in Iraq (SICI) Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim met with Egypt Ambassador Mr. Ahmad Hasan Darwish at his eminence's Baghdad office, January 28, 2016 Thursday.

\r\n

His Eminence conferred with Egypt ambassador mutual relations between Iraq and Egypt, and development of security situations in Iraq and the region plus discussing regional and international political situations.

\r\n

His Eminence stressed on strengthening relations between Iraq and Egypt and with all Arab countries basis of mutual respect to countries sovereignty and not to interfere in internal issues of any country, indicating that Iraq is the most country bearing a load of terrorism and needs the support of his Arab brothers in training and weapons domains.

\r\n

In respect of displaced families status, his eminence explained that displacement is one of the insistent issues in Iraq, urging Arab and regional countries, world's countries and organizations to have a bigger role in mitigating the suffering of displaced families during this bitterly cold weather