

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim condemns bombing the Al-Imam Al-Ridha mosque in Ihsa city, Saudi Arabia

Chairman Supreme Islamic Council in Iraq (SICI) Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim condemned bombing the Al-Imam Al-Ridha mosque in Ihsa city, Saudi Arabia, January 29, 2016, Friday. His eminence demanded the Saudi authority to increase efforts providing security and keeping natives and worshiping locations safe.

\r\n

This statement was published on his eminence Facebook page, calling the international community to spare no efforts in order to eliminate ISIS terrorism that targets humanitarian existence by cutting means of ISIS financial and ideological resources, indicating that this incident was preceded bombing the Al-Imam Al-Sadiq mosque and Saudi security sides should have taken this incident in considerations in order to prevent future recurrence of similar terrorism actions. We ask Almighty Allah that he grant the martyrs mercy and paradise and grant injured fast recovery giving the victims' families patience and fortitude.