

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim discusses with Mr. Nechervan Barzani the developments of political situations and liberating Mosul

Chairman Supreme Islamic Council in Iraq (SICI) Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim discussed with Kurdistan Regional Government (KRG) delegations headed by Mr. Nechervan Barzani, issues related to power, security status, development war against ISIS, liberating Mosul and the status of Mosul dam, on January 31, Sunday.

\r\n

His eminence during his meeting with Mr. Barazani and delegation stressed on that Iraq unity is an inevitable density of all Iraqis, indicating that confronting ISIS require more unity for ISIS goals are based on tearing national unity. Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim called to maintain communication between the federal government and KRG to reach mutual viewpoints and to overcome challenges and unsolved issues, urging the parts to show flexibility in order to bypass disputes.

