

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim discusses with ambassador of Germany supporting displaced families and reconstruction of liberated areas chairman Supreme Islamic Council in Iraq (SICI) Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim met with ambassador of Germany to Iraq Mr. Eckhard Preveza, at his eminence's Baghdad office on Wednesday February 3, 2016.

\r\n

His Eminence conferred with the German ambassador the development of political and security status in Iraq and the region, plus seeking to find a mechanism to reconstruction areas liberated from ISIS and means of supported displaced families, calling the international community to take its part of responsibility towards the humanitarian crisis that was created by terrorism in Iraq considering that Iraq is in a middle of a war against terrorism in behalf of the remaining world.

\r\n

His Eminence reiterated his warning of terrorism danger upon the world, emphasizing the importance of supporting Iraq with weapons, training and intelligence information and to prevent means of supplies for terrorism.