

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim: reformation requires an inclusive vision and a road map per clear specific criteria

\r\n

As Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim clarified that Iraq problems is not technocrat or the political minister but in management and the efficiency of the minister, indicating that reformation requires an inclusive vision and a road map per clear specific criteria.

\r\n

His eminence at Baghdad dewan for elite professional syndicates on February 13, 2016, indicated that political powers should go for a pure Iraqi political compromising that looks for the interests of all before being imposed from abroad, emphasizing on the importance of leaving terms of political projection and concentrate on achievements, noting that ISIS had lost its brooders and eliminating ISIS is merely matter of time.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim indicated resolving economic situation by depending and supporting national products and find loans with little credit interest for Iraq is capable of payments for having high potentials, stressing on ending interim responsibility, noting to the importance of differentiating between community balance and quotas and to select professionals of all components, stressing on the importance of the participating of all in bearing the consequences of financial crisis, considering oil prices a global and regional conflict card, reiterating his vision on that this current year is the year of compromising in spite of escalated statements and the level of aggravation, indicating that all are under stress and all had vainly tried their cards.