

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim heads leadership body and Supreme Islamic Council in Iraq (SICI) political bureau meeting

The meeting of the leadership body and SICI Political Bureau led by Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim Saturday, 02/13/2016, concluded by calling to include the prime minister of ending the political quota system and go to the government of independents and technocrats, this calling for ending quota system should be honest and serious.

\r\n

The meeting expressed full support to the Religious Authority position and dealing with the political, security and economic situations, as well as supporting the reformatations conducted by the prime minister to corruption and the rationalization of the state to cope with the financial crisis and work with the National Alliance to form a parliamentary bloc in accordance with the national program to reform the situations.