

-During his meeting with Basra elites and professionals.... Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim warns from a profoundly deep state that scuttle everything

Chairman Supreme Islamic Council in Iraq (SICI) expressed his beliefs of the existence of of a profoundly deep state underneath the Iraqi state, its mission is to scuttle everything, and there are hands that carries out stultification and protection of everyone, giving a an example of some deliberately using the highest form of bureaucracy with investors who brought funds during the economic crisis but they were stopped by a wall of obstacles, trends and management disorder, pointing out that this phase was after the failure of ISIS political project which exploited the issues and unsuccessfulness that Iraq had suffered from during the past period of time.

\r\n

His Eminence stated during his meeting with Basra elites on Friday 26, February 2016, that there are agendas as it is taking different disguises at every phase, once it\'s terrorism and IEDs and other times it\'s adopting ISIS to fail the political process, confirming that Iraqi people is aware of these agendas and are well comprehended and by knowing that, the Iraqi people defeated ISIS as far as 300 kilometers away from Baghdad.

\r\n

In respect of the reformations, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim indicated that the Supreme Council has a clear supportive position towards the reformations and will not be an obstacle against any reformation step that would be for the favor of the country\'s renaissance and evaluations should be conducted by specialized and unbiased committees.