

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim condemns bombings Sadr city, Baghdad and holds security departments the responsibility of any breach in security

Chairman Supreme Islamic Council in Iraq (SICI) Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim bombings in Sadr city, Baghdad and considered the security departments the responsible of any breach in security, calling to review their strategy as soon as possible.

\r\n

His eminence published on his Facebook page on Sunday 28, February 2016, ISIS targeted innocent civilians in Sadr city, Baghdad, in a desperate attempt to recover from continuous defeats by the arms of our furious security forces, Popular Forces, Peshmerga and tribal heroes, praying for mercy to the honorable martyrs and fast recovery for our wounded