

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim congratulates the educational sector for the occasion of teacher's day and calls for their equity

Chairman Supreme Islamic Council in Iraq (SICI) Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim congratulated educational sector for the occasion of teacher's day on Tuesday 1, March 2016, at which his eminence had visited a number of schools in Baghdad and attended a number of celebrations.

\r\n

His eminence stated for the occasion of teacher's day: "We stand in respect and admiration for all who had taught us", saluting the teachers considering them a national remarkable character having an unlimited dedication to make future generations, calling to the equity of teachers and rebuild the educational process on sound basis that guarantee sound outputs.