

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim stresses on a complete and integrated reformation per program, policies and procedures

During meeting of political blocs with the three presidencies on Wednesday 2, march 2016, Chairman Supreme Islamic Council (SICI) Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim stressed on the importance of making the reformation inclusive per a clear vision and program that will include reformations in politics, economics, security and society, confirming the importance of carrying out the reformation process by a competent team work.

\r\n

His eminence confirmed that sides in the meeting agreed on determining deadlines to finalize a united vision appeasing all sides, calling to include deputies, general managers, independent committees and deputized positions in the armed forces in the process of the reformation, clarifying working on verifying competent deputies and replace the incompetent deputies with a full assessment to all ministers.

\r\n

His eminence stated that multiple discretion and opinions is normal during discussion of such a sensitive issue, reformations should be appealing to all sides basing on the Iraqi society variety and congruent with society ambitions and society demands, reminding that the political system in Iraq is parliament and balance should be applied among the maturities of the political blocs that makes the government its legitimacy without being trapped in the despicable quota, putting aside multiple opinions risking the reformation process, asking about the committee that will conduct the nominations and how is this committee structured and how it will express the Iraqi community and its view towards technocrat and are they independent or politicians.