

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim condemning Brussels bombings and calling for drying financial and ideological sources of terrorism

Chairman Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim condemned the terrorist bombings of the Belgian capital, Brussels, stressing that terrorism is not a local situation, combined to a specific political status, considering that Brussels bombings an added to evidence to dozens of terrorist attacks which affected most of the world's cities showing that terrorism does not exclude anyone.

\r\n

His Eminence published a statement on his page on Facebook: "We express our support with the families of the innocent victims, and we reiterate our call to the international community to stand firmly for the elimination of terrorism and drying its ideological and financial sources," calling to assist Iraq in its war on behalf of the remaining world against criminal gangs of ISIS.

