

Sayyid Ammar Al- Hakim briefed Religious Authorities in Holy Najaf on developments in the political situation and reformation status

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq Thursday 05/05/2016 met with the great Religious Authority in Holy Najaf.

\r\n

His Eminence informed the Religious Authorities of the current political and security situations in Iraq, stressing the need for comprehensive reforms away from patching solutions, emphasizing that the ministerial reshuffle is only one section of the overall reformation process and not all of it.