

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim discusses the liberation of Fallujah aftermath with minister of planning and the governor of Anbar province

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic supreme council of Iraq, received minister of planning Mr. Salman Al-Jumaily and Governor of Anbar province Mr. Suhaib Al-Rawi at his Baghdad office Wednesday 8/6/2016

\r\n

His eminence discussed with Al-Rawi and Al-Juburi the aftermath of liberating Fallujah, indicating that it is a national battle supported by all levels of society, reiterating to bring back the city into the homeland's umbrella.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim called for magnifying the pros and minimize the cons, noting that violations, if any to occur , are the actions of an individual that shall not be considered a method of all, but a condemned individual\'s behavior. His eminence praised the presence of tribes members in the battle, who share with their brethren in the Popular Forces the sacrifice and bloodshed.