

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim: any person was characterized of being unjust at any time of his life is not entitled to occupy any authority position

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq stressed that the divine curriculum says to ban all those unjust in any period of his life to be in a position of authority, citing of Almighty God respond to Abraham (peace be upon him), when Abraham (peace be upon him) asked the Imamate to his descendants.

\r\n

This was addressed by his eminence in the sixth Ramadan evening in his Baghdad office Sunday, 12/06/2016.

\r\n

His eminence indicated that the Imamate is an application of divine justice, and the task of Imam is to take the people to the safe side, describing the presence of the Imam as the existence of the sun, which is essential for life, pointing out that the Imamate is the overall leadership for all venues of life, the Imam has the leadership and the tasked of reforming and these roles confirms that granting of the Imamate is exclusively given by of God.

\r\n

His Eminence referred to the position of the Prophet Abraham (peace be upon him) and the tribulations he endured testing, explaining that the Holy Quran describes Abraham (peace be upon him) of being good-doer, righteous and compassionate to his prayers, in the sense that he was concerned of constantly praying, and a nation for the greatness of his project, plus describing him of being devoutly obedient, a man of truth, lenient and true-hearted.