

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: We must be aware of foreign conspiracies without being dragged into the conspiracy theory

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq called for caution from foreign conspiracies and put them under considerations without being dragged into the conspiracy theory, noting that there is a vast difference between the two subjects, stressing the need to entrust in God and have self-confidence and in the Iraqi project, which is now becoming solid.

\r\n

This was addressed in the eighth Ramadan evening in his eminence\'s Baghdad office Tuesday, 14.06.2016.

\r\n

His eminence stated the conspiracy theory is a negative factor if it took a great deal of thinking, especially by the official, noting that most of the plot tools are fabrications and lies that are meant to mislead public opinion and make the public doubt in its political system, stressing the need for accuracy in exchanging news and adopt reliable means of information.

\r\n

His eminence also called to spread the principle of having good faith in others, since a believer having good faith brother believer is a humanitarian and Islamic principle narrated by the great Imams, pointing to the need for deliberation before throwing judgments on others, especially in the time of the information revolution, which played an unfortunate role through exploiting weak characters in fabrications, images and videos that look at first glance it\'s a fact but quickly found to be false.