

For the occasion of Iraqi Press day , Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim praises Iraqi press role in opposing terrorism

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, praised Iraqi press role in opposing terrorism after 2003, recalling the great achievements presented by Iraqi journalism and journalists in building the national awareness system, calling to be proud of Iraqi press glorious contributions in the defense of the righteousness and justice.

\r\n

This was posted on his eminence personal Facebook page Thursday 16/6/2016

\r\n

His eminence showed his great appreciation to Iraqi press victorious attempts in opposing dictators and tyrants who tried to bury the Iraqi patriotic personality, the Iraqi journalists had fought bitter conflicts and presented great sacrifices for the sake of their cause, at which the Iraqi press was in front-lines against terrorism, and presented in this regard convoys of martyrs that their blood had covered paths of freedom, praying for mercy to the martyrs of awareness and the sincere word,