

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim: social justice, a basic rule that is not subject to exceptions or partition

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq stressed that social justice is a basic rule that is not subject to exceptions or partition, indicating that social justice requires neglecting interests, considering partitioning as a parallel to injustice.

\r\n

This took place in the thirteenth Ramadan evening, at his eminence office in Baghdad Wednesday, 22.06.2016 office.

\r\n

His Eminence reiterated his warning of projects that may look good in appearances, calling to always ask about the objective and what are the tools of investigating and are who those stand behind and funding those projects, noting that a cleric must be characterized of being a follower and servants of god, stressing the follow-up of the individual\'s behavior and not to be fascinated with religious appearances that may be exploited by some individuals for their own private interests.